

Company Overview

Founded in 2008, ProFeds specializes in providing educational-based retirement training services for the U.S. federal government workforce worldwide. Federal agencies partner with ProFeds to provide financial-based retirement training to their employees in accordance with the Office of Personnel Management's financial literacy initiative.

Core Competencies

The ProFeds training team helps federal employees to understand the key decisions they will make for their federal benefits. Their instructors carry a deep understanding of the complexities of the benefits and how to simplify them.

This level of knowledge allows the instructors to help the employees better understand how their benefits change in retirement so employees can make smart financial decisions that provide the greatest long-term benefit to them and their families.

Federal employees attending this training enjoy:

- Energetic speakers who bring lively conversation and candid perspective
- Complex topics are broken down into clear language with examples
- Well-organized and professionally designed materials
- All slides are provided in a workbook with step-by-step action items
- One-on-one assistance to review their specific retirement scenario

Training Topics

Our training covers the vast array of benefits available to federal employees including:

- General Retirement Planning
- Pensions (CSRS & FERS)
- Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP)
- Social Security
- FERS Special Retirement Supplement
- Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)
- Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB)
- Federal Long Term Care Insurance Program (FLTCIP)
- Thrift Savings Plan (TSP)

Socio-Economic Status

ProFeds is proud to help the federal government diversify its involvement with vendors from various socio-economic statuses:

- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB)
- Economically Disadvantaged Woman-Owned Small Business (EDWOSB)
- Small Disadvantaged Business

Simplifying How Federal Employees Retire from Federal Service

The ProFeds team brings a candid, no-nonsense approach to federal retirement training.

EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK

"The workshop you delivered yesterday was phenomenal. I enjoyed the presentation, as well as the class participation and interaction."

D.S., Office of Personnel Management, Washington, D.C.

"The information provided is a true eye-opening experience but it is a lasting education for the impact of your future."

R.R., Department of Justice, Chicago, IL

"Strongly recommend! Excellent training. Clear, to the point, easy to follow, very instructive & helpful! The best retirement seminar attended. Thank you very much!"

D.R., Department of Homeland Security, Tampa, FL

"It's easy to see why you're in such high demand. Your material was spot on, informative and easy to understand."

J.R., Department of the Army, San Antonio, TX

"The class was amazing and I especially enjoyed the presentation from someone in the private sector who specializes in federal benefits. It was not simply someone from my agency or OPM giving facts or opinions."

R.M., Department of Treasury, Nashville, TN
